“The Bay Area’s Most Talented Young Musicians”

The California Youth Symphony performs several concerts for an enthusiastic audience of over 10,000 every season. Concerts are held at the beautiful Flint Center in Cupertino, San Mateo Performing Arts Center, as well as other Silicon Valley venues. As a non-profit arts education organization, CYS is committed to presenting excellent programs that challenge and inspire our community. We rely on the generosity and support of friends, families, and business sponsors to continue providing the joy of music as we have for the past 54 years.
